

Possessive Adjectives (Too Much Stuff!)

Fill in the blanks with my, your, her, his, its, our, or their.

1. I have to clean _____ football boots. I played football in the rain.
2. Is that _____ bike? No, my bike is red.
3. He plays football. It's _____ favourite sport.
4. Can I borrow _____ ball? I'll give it back to you later.
5. I want to play with Marcus. Do you know _____ username?
6. Rory has a dog. _____ name is Mac.
7. Look at that tree! _____ branches look easy to climb.
8. Dad says he'll pay me to clean _____ car.
9. I fell out of the tree and now _____ knee hurts.
10. Do I have to do _____ homework now?
11. Rory has to help _____ Mum clean the kitchen.
12. She doesn't want to read anymore. _____ book is really boring.
13. Let's go around to Leo and Maria. _____ garden is really cool!
14. I love pizza. It's _____ favourite food.
15. She loves apples. They are _____ favourite fruit.

1. I have to clean my football boots. I played in the rain. 2. Is that your bike? No, my bike is red. 3. He plays football. It's his favourite sport. 4. Can I borrow your ball? I'll give it back to you later. 5. I want to play with Marcus. Do you know his username? 6. Rory has a dog. His name is Mac. 7. Look at that tree! Its branches look easy to climb. 8. Dad says he'll pay me to clean his car. 9. I fell out of the tree and now my knee hurts. 10. Do I have to do my homework now? 11. Rory has to help his Mum clean the kitchen. 12. She doesn't want to read anymore. Her book is really boring. 13. Let's go around to Leo and Maria. Their garden is really cool. 14. I love pizza. It's my favourite food. 15. She loves apples. They are her favourite fruit.